Four Days, Four Regions: The Essence of Portuguese Wines to be discovered.

Portugal offers an unforgettable journey through its wine, historical, and cultural richness. In four days, we travel through unique regions, where exclusive native grape varieties reveal the soul of the country.

In Porto and the Douro, you'll discover centuries-old estates, World Heritage terraces, and the roots of the famous Port Wine.

In Vinhedos Verdes, the freshness of Alvarinho and Loureiro blends with Minho tradition.

In Dão, a high-altitude granite terroir, Touriga Nacional and Encruzado shine.

The experience is completed with authentic cuisine, from roast kid goat to smoked sausages, and stunning landscapes, where river, mountain, and vineyards intertwine, transforming each moment into an unforgettable memory.

01 Day Port Wine and its Cellars

In the morning, visit the historic center of Porto and Gaia, and visit a Port Wine Cellar and guided tasting.

Lunch at a typical and traditional restaurant, for an intimate experience with the region's gastronomy, also in one of the cellars.

Visit WOW – World of Wine, exploring themed museums and immersive experiences. Free time to explore the shops and terrace overlooking the Douro.

Dinner at a typical Matosinhos restaurant specializing in fish and seafood, enjoying a fine wine.

Return to the Hotel Palácio do Freixo, a beacon in Porto's hotel industry along the Douro River.

02 Day Vinho Verde Region Alvarinho/Monção

Morning departure from Porto towards Monção and visit Quinta da Breijoeira and taste Alvarinho Vinho Verde.

Short visit to Ponte de Lima to enjoy Minho gastronomy, with lunch at a regional restaurant.

After lunch, visit Adega Cooperativa in Ponte de Lima for a Vinho Verde tasting and a brief tour of Ponte de Lima's historic center.

Departure to Amarante with a visit to the historic center.

Check-in at Palácio Casa da Calçada, enjoy dinner at its Michelin-starred restaurant, renowned for its premium regional gastronomy.

03 Day Douro Region Régua/Pinhão

Departure towards Régua, capital of the Douro Wine Region and birthplace of Port Wine, a stroll through the historic center and a visit to the Douro Museum to understand the UNESCO-listed landscape.

Lunch at a Port wine estate, Quinta de Santa Eufemia, a visit to the winery, and then a visit to Pinhão, traveling along the EN 222, considered one of the most beautiful roads in the world.

From Pinhão, a visit to the train station, and a one-hour boat ride through the Douro hills.

Arrival at the Quinta da Pacheca Hotel for overnight stay and dinner. This beautiful, palatial, centuries-old manor house is considered one of the most beautiful estates in the Douro.

04 Day Dão Region Viseu

Departure from the Douro towards the Dão Wine Region (Viseu area) and a short tour of the historic center of Viseu.

Lunch in the city, enjoying typical Beira cuisine: arroz de cabidela (rice with blood), roast veal, or Serra cheese paired with Dão wines.

After lunch, visit the Dão Wine Estate, tasting high-altitude and elegant wines characteristic of the region, with a guided wine tasting.

Return to Porto and end of the 4-day itinerary to the most characteristic Portuguese wine regions in the north: Porto, Minho, Douro, and Dão.

This playbook combines wine, history, gastronomy, and landscape in four intense but balanced days, offering the best of Portugal's wine heritage with authentic and memorable experiences.
